

The AAFES Diversity Leadership Council (DLC) is a recipient of the 2009 Diversity Council Honors Award. The honor recognizes the dedication and commitment to increasing the impact, effectiveness and recognition of diversity councils as an essential partner in developing, implementing and maintaining a strategic diversity focus within the organization.

The Diversity Council Honors Award honors outstanding contributions and achievements of diversity council groups that lead diversity processes in organizations and demonstrate results in the Workforce, Workplace and Marketplace. Recipients of the award will set the standards of excellence for diversity councils in the U.S.
