

Ferrero Recalls Kinder Products Due To Pathogen Contaminate

Recall Date: 6 April 2022

Description: Ferrero is initiating a voluntary recall of select Kinder Products due to the possibility of contamination with or Salmonella. For more information on this recall please visit the food.gov.uk website.

The recall applies to 20g eggs or three-packs of the eggs with a best before date of all dates up to and including October 7 2022, 100g Kinder Surprise packs with a best before date between April 20 2022 and August 21 2022, Kinder Mini Eggs 75g packs with a best before date between April 20 and August 21 2022, and Kinder Egg Hunt Kits 150g with best before dates from April 21 to August 21 2022.

The following products were sold at The Exchange:

Product Description	UPC	Product Images	Best Before Dates
Kinder Schokobons	5413548280189		28 May 2022 through 28 August 2022
Kinder Happy Moments	8000500284391

Hazard: Symptoms caused by Salmonella usually include fever, diarrhea and abdominal cramps and typically resolve themselves within a few days. However, symptoms can be more severe, especially in young children and those with weakened immune systems.

Remedy: Consumers who have the products that are being recalled should not eat these products and dispose of them appropriately. Anyone with concerns that they have symptoms should contact their health care professional.

Incidents/Injuries: An investigation led by the UK Health Security Agency (UKHSA) and other safety bodies found a link between reported cases of salmonella poisoning and the Kinder Surprise eggs. The Exchange does not sell Kinder Surprise eggs.

Sold at: Europe Exchanges and other retailers.

Consumer Contact: If you have purchased any of the recalled product, please contact the Ferrero consumer careline at consumerservice@ferrero.com or +49 (0)69-665-6660 for a full refund. For affected product purchased at The Exchange, customers can return it to The Exchange for a full refund.
